This review petition is at the instance of the writ petitioner. The issue pertains to exemption from payment of building tax in respect of a star hotel. In the judgment sought to be reviewed, this Court has already taken the view that the question is covered against the petitioner by the judgment of the Division Bench of this Court in W.A.No.1353/98. According to the petitioner, some of the aspects dealt with in the writ appeal judgment require reconsideration and some of the aspects raised by the petitioner are not dealt with in the writ appeal judgment. These are not matters within the scope of review. It is for the petitioner to pursue the matter in appeal, if so advised. Without prejudice to the liberty to pursue the grievance if any in appeal, the delay petition as well as the review petition is dismissed.
